

$50 Reward.

UNAWAY from the subscriber at Elkton, on Friday morning, the 5th instant, a Negro Boy named DAVE, about 18 years old, very black, has a sore on his forehead above the eye, and another on his throat, under his chin. Had on when he went off, an old pair esnaburg pantaloons broken on one knee, and old white woolen coat roundabout, ragged about the sleeves. He was seen on the turnpike between Elkton and Wilmington—it is presumable that he will make his way on to Wilmington, Philadelphia, or get up to Chester, Pennsylvania. The above reward of Fifty Dollars will be given for his apprehension and delivery at Elkton Jail, or any other so that I get him again.

aug 13 wcm

JOHN T. LLOY